The 2019 Lloyd's List Asia Pacific Awards are part of the Lloyd's List Excellence in Shipping Awards – the industry's flagship awards programme that recognizes and rewards excellence across all sectors of maritime.

The Awards have a range of categories suitable for any successful organization to increase their profile and benchmark themselves against their peers; from large private and public companies through to thriving entrepreneurial businesses, promising start-ups and established SMEs.

Entries are judged by a community of associations and industry leaders, making the Lloyd's List Excellence in Shipping Awards a highly desirable accolade of distinction.

Top management representatives from Sandigan Ship Services Inc. have attended the event at Shangri-La Hotel, Singapore last October 17th, 2019, where all the winners of each category were announced. Even without winning, just being voted as a Finalist in any category is already a big milestone for a company and Sandigan is very much appreciative of being voted as one of the four (4) Finalists in the category of “Excellence in Dry Bulk Shipping”.

Category: Excellence in Dry Bulk Shipping - Finalists

Unsatisfied with its 2017/18 Quality Health Safety & Environment Management results, Sandigan has transformed itself in 12 months into a world-class dry bulk QHSE performer. With a firm belief that “every incident is preventable” it has achieved PSC DPI 0.38, LTIFR 0.0, TRCF 0.3, and zero incidents.

In this regard, we wish to thank everyone in the company and onboard our managed ships for the job well done! This excellent achievement is mainly due to the dedication, hard work, support and good cooperation between our seafarers and the company shore personnel. This is just the beginning and let us all continue to strive for the best in our safety performance while providing high value services to our customers and hopefully we can win the coveted awards in the years to come!
